PRINCIPAL

DR. JOE HALL
SUPT. DADE COUNTY SCHOOLS

Dear Students of Miami Palmetto High,

With five years behind us, Miami Palmetto Senior High School stands assured of an influential and respected place in our community. As we review the 1962-1963 year, the accomplishments we achieved and the traditions we established come to the fore. During this period of time we have been accepted as a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Senior Stunt Night, the Faculty Frolics and Homecoming also became annual events.

However, the past fades away for only the future lures and guides us to realize that graduation is not a period terminating your educational development, but merely a comma separating one strata of learning from another.

The sophomores and junior classes fall heir to the responsibility of keeping, surpassing, and developing new goals and objectives; while the seniors walk gratefully out of our doors into future halls of endeavor. Our doors will never close behind you, but rather will remain unlatched to receive you when you return to visit us.

Respectfully yours,

Clyde Crabtree

Utmost in loyalty, utmost in fortitude, and utmost in the hearts of the students are Mrs. Helen Gwaltney and Mrs. Shirley Newman.

Mrs. Helen Gwaltney is characterized by her natural reserve which commands respect and admiration, and her genuine interest in each student at Miami Palmetto High School.

Mrs. Shirley Newman is dedicated and inspiring, and throughout the years she has instilled in her students an excellent philosophy of life.

Mrs. Helen Gwaltney and Mrs. Shirley Newman because you—

. . . have supported activities of the school and community.

. . . have listened to the many problems regardless of how insignificant.

GLENDA SILVIA
Editor of Palm Echo

A busy year of activities and work provided the Palm Echo staff with plenty of information and pictures for the yearbook.

The editor, Glenda Silvia, was able to remain calm through most of the year.

At the many activities, Ray Green could be seen taking pictures. He was aided by Rick Friedman with this tremendous task.

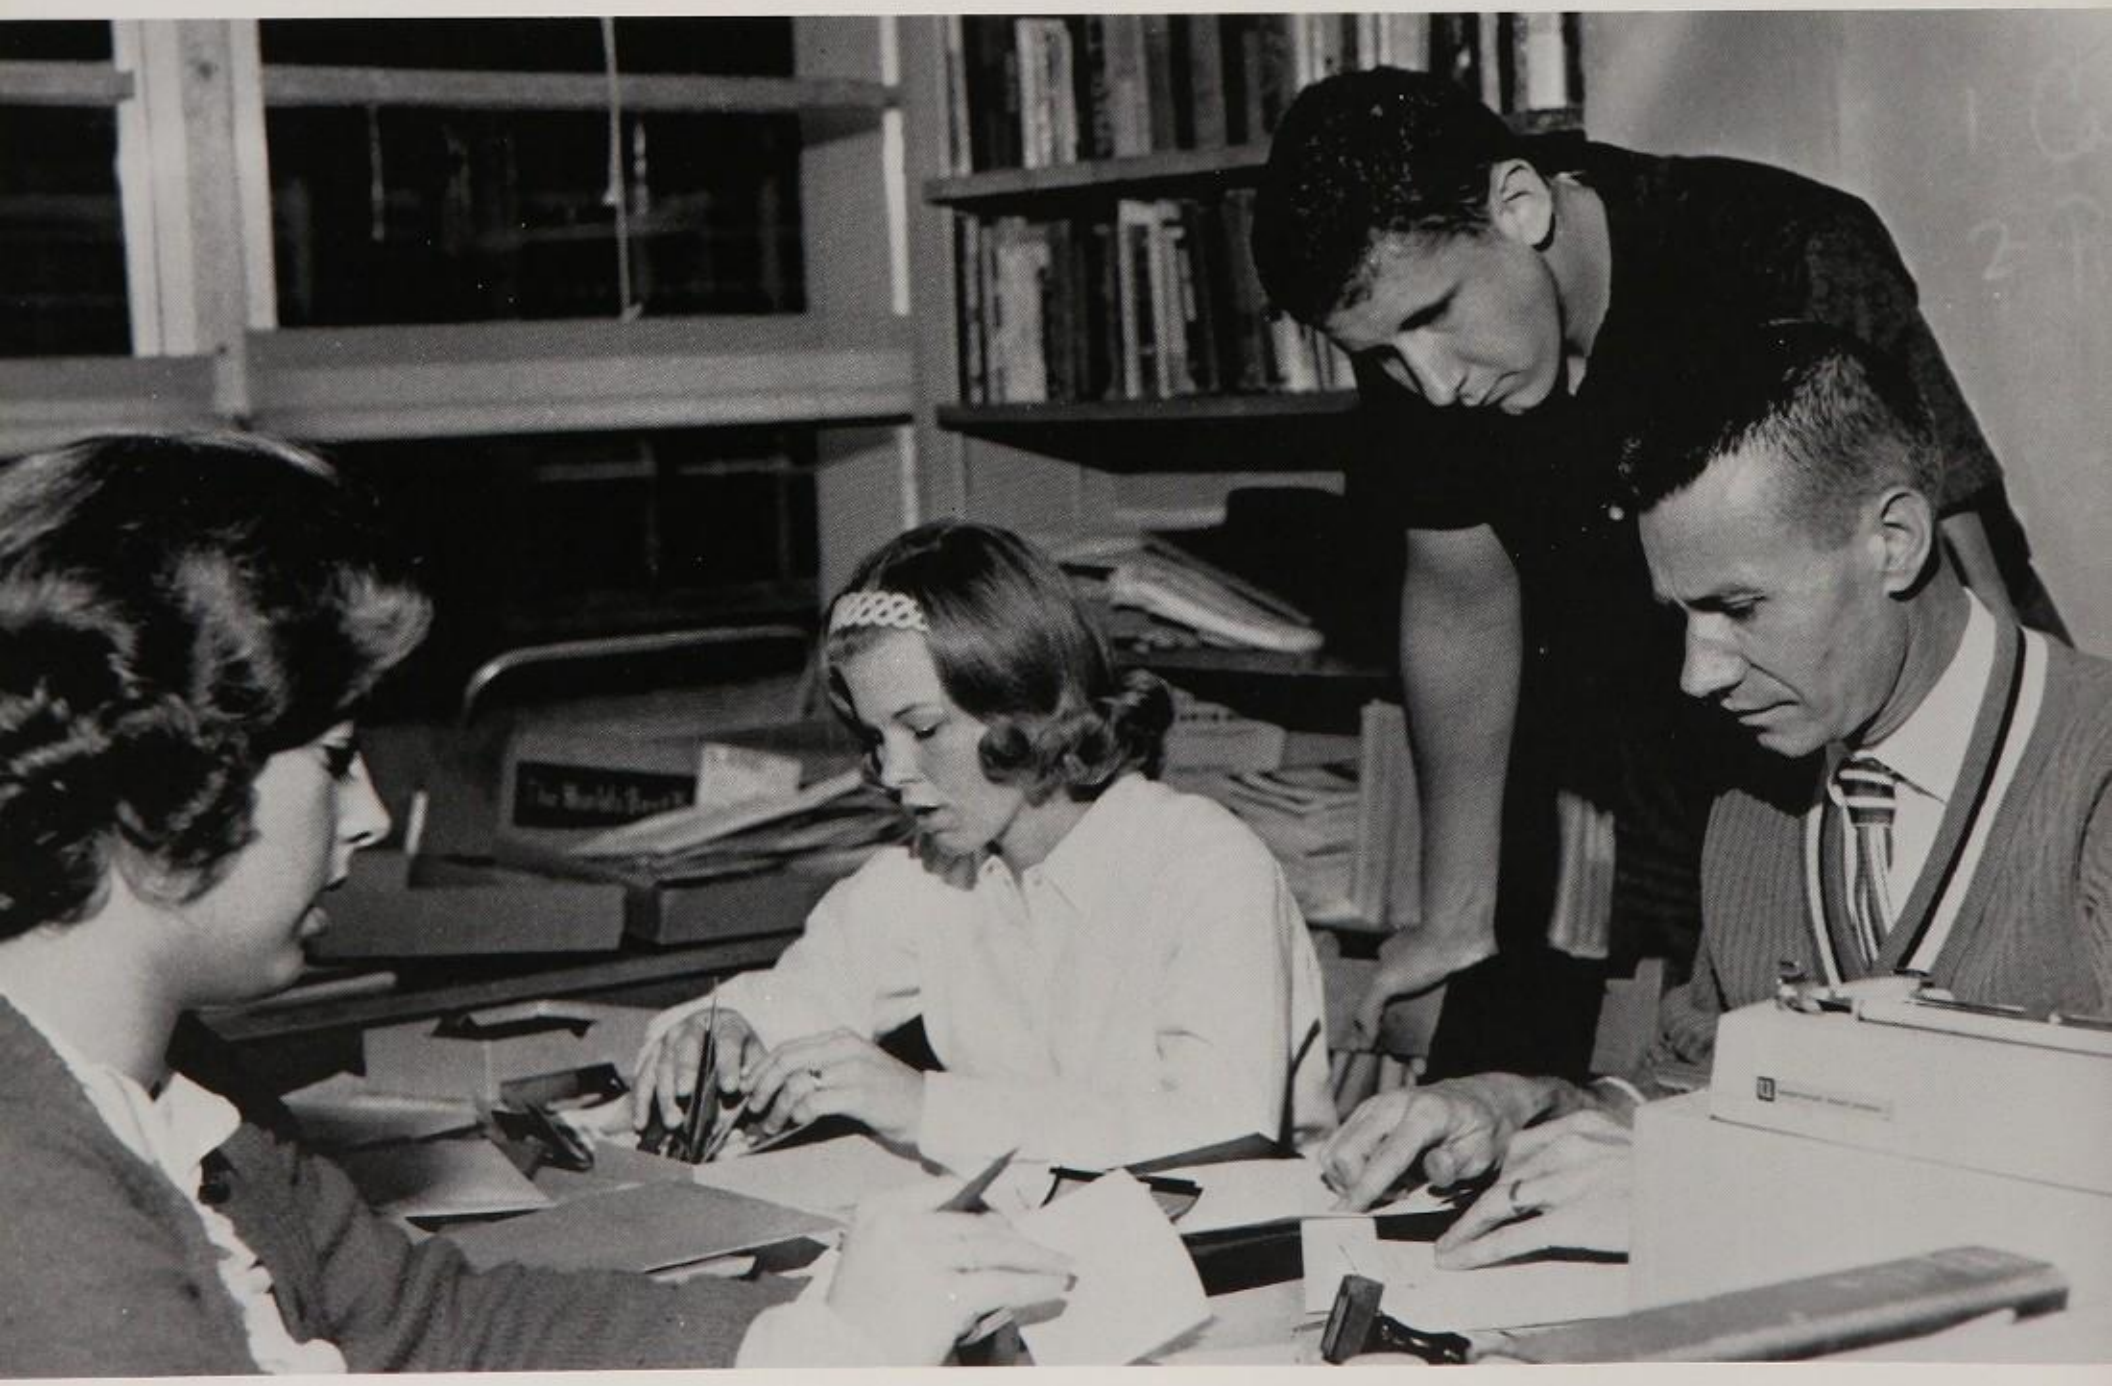
Even though Jim Gager was not a member of the staff, he spent endless hours with the art work. Mrs. Marlene Lindquist gave many helpful ideas to the staff.

The superlatives were finished in record time by Cheryl D'Amico and Terri Fleming. The activities and organizations were under the leadership of Sandy Allen.

The sports section was arranged by Charles Oltz and John Long.

Burma Olsen spent hours keeping the receipts in order. Lynn Richmond was responsible for keeping all the records of money.

The juniors, headed by Bev Acton, did numerous tasks to make the work easier. The entire staff sold a record number of ads and yearbooks.



The layouts are checked by Glenda Silvia, Sandy Allen, John Long and Mr. McCauley.

Palmetto

The fourth year of publication for the PALMETTO PANTHER found for the first time two people sharing the editor's position. Serving as the editor-in-chief for the first semester was Eunice Tall, with Doug Greist taking over the reins for the second semester. A special eight page Homecoming issue, an April Fool's issue, and a graduation issue highlighted the year.

Assisting Eunice and Doug on the editorial board were Caroline Acker, news editor; Chris Hundley, features editor; Ron Lieberman, sports editor. Business manager Mary Ann Teddlie, advertising and promotion managers Paul Fox, Jeanne Whiting, Elise Kass, and Stephanie Glaubman, circulation manager Lynn Armistead, and exchange editor Marcia Orovitz comprise the business staff.

Staff writers included Jamie Beaty, Carol Bell, Merrie Blocker, Patti Coulter, Kirk Haas, Meredith Richardson, Marion Layton, and Fred Liebold.

An outstanding photography job was again done by Ray Green, with the able assistance of Rick Friedman, who will handle the picture-taking chores next year.

Representatives from the paper attended several conventions during the past year in order to give them a better understanding of the operation of a newspaper. The ideas learned at the various conventions will be applied to next year's paper.

We went to dances and parties rather than studying—and we paid for it though—more work piled upon us. We could feel the years slipping through our fingers and we tried to hold them, then we let them go without regret because we knew that there would be many more good ones ahead.

FACULTY

A Tribute . . .

John Ciardi has said that not even a teacher can force a damp soul to dry itself and burst into flame; but if the spirit be ready, what a tinderbox you teachers are! You pull, push, plead, demand because of your great desire to help us learn. You have more energy than we do, and you can slave with the zeal of a great writer, with the dedication of an inspired artist. Your patience usually carries you through a number of unanswerable or unthinkable questions. You are the cup filler, not the cup bearer. You have influenced us more than we know and are part of the yardstick with which we measure ourselves.

You have a freedom with your knowledge, an intellectual liberty which grasps our confidence and erects an ideal for us. Each day you instruct us and unconsciously inspire us to experiment with the theory of relativity and to appreciate the masterpieces of Shakespeare. You give the most of yourselves and expect the best of us. However, even if we falter you do not see us as the lost generation, but as the youth of the present. In you, genius finds an advocate and mediocrity an uplifter.

Yes, we shall remember you. For your open door, your open book and your open mind–we thank you.

In September of 1962, Palmetto's third graduating class began its senior year. It carried on established traditions: more than one hundred seniors worked to make Stunt Nite a success. In March, the Senior Class cooperated with the faculty to present the third Faculty Frolics. The final project was the Senior Class play, Gidget. These projects earned the money to finance the gift to Palmetto, a mosaic of the school seal.

In working together, the seniors developed a class spirit which found expression in signs at the games and two class parties, one in October, and another on George Washington's birthday. For the second party the seniors came through with twenty cakes and hundreds of cookies, most of which were donated to Variety Children's Hospital.

This has been a year of hard work and good times; it has been profitable, enjoyable and challenging.

Respectfully submitted,
Pat Jones, Secretary

Senior Class of '64

The Junior Class helped to lengthen the list of "firsts" for Palmetto this year. As the doors opened in September, the juniors sponsored the first dance, "Come September," to officially welcome the students and sophomores back to school. Another first was the first sock hop after the Miami High basketball game. The active juniors also took first place in the Homecoming float decoration and helped with the Homecoming proceedings.

The most outstanding of the Junior class this year was their magazine sale in February. Their sales topped all records at Palmetto and in the state. This money will be used to finance the Junior-Senior Prom at the Everglades Hotel, May 26.

Senior Class of '65

State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner J. Edwin Larson presents Doug Greist and Mr. Crabtree with a plaque for safety work during a sophomore assembly.

The Sophomore Class under the leadership of President Jim Willis, spent an energetic and spirited year. In the 1963 Homecoming Parade, they entered their float, "Sophomore Spirit." Caribbean Capers, an annual informal dance, was held by the Sophomores in the spring. A tropical island theme, complete with palm trees, provided the atmosphere for this gay night.

The most important event of the year was the graduation dance held for the students graduating from the several junior high schools in the vicinity. This dance climaxed a very successful year for one of the largest Sophomore classes.

A Year of Firsts

The 1962 Panther football squad was Dade County's most improved team. Gene Gibson, "Coach of the Year," was the main influence in driving the team to their most successful season. The 6-4 season gave the team its highest conference standing in the Gold Coast Southern Division. Palmetto won victories over Curley, Miami Beach, Hialeah, Columbus, Key West, and South Dade, due to their extra effort, and the guidance of the coaching staff.

The year ended with three firsts for Palmetto. The placing of the first Palmetto football players on an All-City team provided an honor never received by our school. Several of these players also received scholarships to play for college football teams. The final highlight of the year was the presentation of the "Sportsmanship Trophy" to Palmetto's Student Body for their outstanding sportsmanship in all athletic events.

Student Council

MR. D. HAROLD KNOTT
Director of Student Activities

Under the leadership of President Mike Jarrard and Student Activities Director, Harold Knott, Palmetto Senior High went into its fifth year of legislation.

For the first time the Council sent representatives to the Southern Association of Student Councils Convention. Accompanying Mr. Knott and Mike were Vice-President, Patty Hayes, and Secretary, Pat Partney. Palmetto also sent delegations to the Florida Association of Student Councils' Convention in Daytona Beach and to the two District Six Conventions.

During the year the Council sponsored the second annual Homecoming festivities; in cooperation with Operation Amigo and the Miami Herald, the Council hosted a group of "amigos" overnight enroute to Houston from Ecuador. The Council established another first when Palmetto became a chapter of the American Field Service. Through this chapter, the Student Council will finance and sponsor an exchange student next year.

Throughout all our activities, National Honor Society has emphasized its four ideals: scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Our first activity of the year was sponsoring the initial vocational guidance breakfast. On College Night, the National Honor Society members served as ushers to the guest speakers and the parents. One of the most outstanding of our projects, and a first for Palmetto, was the sponsoring of the movie The King and I.

After both of our inductions we held donut sales to "welcome" the new members into the club. We also held a get-acquainted picnic after the new members were inducted second semester. The new officers for the school year 1963-64 were installed at our annual banquet held in May.

To top off the year's activities, nine delegates were sent to the state convention in Jacksonville.

El Calderón

As the first honor society in Palmetto's history, the Calderón Chapter of the Spanish National Honor Society was granted its charter in May of 1960. The club's growth has paralleled that of the school.

The objective of the society is to promote interest and understanding in Latin America and its culture. The club has advanced its purpose by presenting a Pan American assembly and providing guest speakers to discuss different aspects of Latin America.

Other highlights of the year have been two inductions of new members, a float in the Homecoming parade, a Christmas party, and a pizza booth in the Mardi Gras.

Mu Alpha Theta

Mu Alpha Theta, the national mathematics honor society, endeavored this year to stimulate and broaden the interest in math. The main focus of service was centered around preparing the students for competition in the National Mathematics Exam given in March. Afternoon meetings, under the supervision of Mr. Glazer, were held to acquaint all interested students in testing methods and types of problems. Along with these meetings, the club also participated in the Mardi Gras and in sponsoring a vocational breakfast.

Requirements for Mu Alpha Theta include a 3.6 average in math for five semesters and an over all 3.0 average. New members were tapped second semester to continue the work of the honor society next year.

KEY CLUB

Service to Palmetto High has been the objective of Key Club since its beginning in February of 1961. As an active organization in the school, the club consists of boys who have met the high standards for qualification.

Key Club serves the school through its daily activities as well as its special projects. Each day the flag is raised and lowered and the stairs and the cafeteria are monitored by club members. Key Club has displayed their school spirit from announcing at the football games to a prize-winning sidewalk cafe at the Mardi Gras.

Key Club has been active in innumerable projects, but one of its largest was the compiling and publishing of the annual Student Directory.

Living up to its motto, "We Build," Key Club each day performs useful services for Palmetto, helping to create a better school through finer service.

WHEEL CLUB

The end of the 1962-1963 school year marked the end of the Wheel Club's greatest year. Next year its name will be officially changed to Interact, enabling the organization of international branches to be sponsored by Rotary International.

Under the leadership of Presidents Dick Smith and John Olsson, Wheel Club promoted school spirit with organized cheering, life-size signs, and the Wheel cannon. The Palmetto Panther statue, donated by Wheel but destroyed by vandals in the first semester, was reconstructed by Joe Willson and placed outside the auditorium as a symbol of school spirit.

The money-making projects this year included the candy sale led by the "Candy Crew" made up of Dan Howard, Stuart Colby, and Skip Austin. Other projects featured car washes, and an ice cream booth in the Mardi Gras. Plans for second semester included the construction of a sports record board and a Moonlight Cruise.

Les Jeunes Filles, in its second year as a service club, has contributed many services to the school and community. The highlights of the year was a Christmas party given for children afflicted with Cystic Fibrosis. To aid these children the girls also sold handmade dolls for the Cystic Fibrosis Fund. Les Juenes Filles worked at the Miami Tuberculosis Center, assisted with the Cerebral Palsy Drive, headed Palmetto High School's Career Night's publicity, and sold programs at the Miami Beach Horse Show. The club also worked at the Haven's School and Orphanage and ushered at the PTA Christmas Program; their year long project was the ordering and processing of College Catalogues.

The Girls' Council is composed of six representatives from each grade level and six girls chosen at large from the student body. It's main purposes are to uphold high standards of conduct, to encourage proper dress, to welcome new girls into the school, to foster school spirit and to make every girl feel that she is an important part of Palmetto High School.

Girls' Council is responsible for the Big Sister-Little Sister program, which makes all new girls feel at ease. At the beginning of the year all new members are formally inducted in an assembly. Another assembly, the annual Christmas assembly, proved to be informative while arousing interest in the Winter Wonderland Dance held at Westbrooke Country Club. A community project was an Easter egg hunt for the Cuban refugee children. The annual Senior Tea was given by the junior representatives honoring all graduating girls. The Girls' League and Council has enjoyed a most successful year.

This year the Palmetto Chapter of the Future Nurses Club of America has increased its membership to fifty members. The club has taken numerous field trips and has visited Barry College and Jackson Memorial Hospital where they were shown the aspects of nursing. Four delegates were sent to the FNA Convention in Palm Beach. The donut sales proved a success as a money-making project. Concluding the year with a picnic, the FNA has had a successful year through the combined cooperation and support of its members.

Future Teachers

Liz Walden
President

John Wall
Vice-President

Palmetto's Future Teachers of America was organized to prepare the student for a future in teaching by working in co-ordinating with the faculty. This year's members have tried to lighten the teacher's load by tutoring, filing, and grading papers.

Two general teaching scholarships were given this year. These were given to Katherine Murray and John Wall who excelled this year.

FTA has added a new tradition to the previous three of:

1) Officers installation luncheon in May
2) Teachers and Interns tea
3) Student Education Day at the University of Miami in March
4) Orientation of Future Teachers from Palmetto Junior High in April

Future Homemakers of America

Although the FHA at Palmetto is still quite young, it has made several contributions to the school and the community this past year. At Christmas time the club gave a basket of food to a needy family. "Fry the Rebels" was the theme of the float FHA entered in the Homecoming Parade.

The FHA sponsored many money-making projects to send delegates to the FHA convention. The club participated in the Mardi Gras by operating a pastry booth.

L'Avant-Garde

The members of L'Avant Garde, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Marlene Lindquist, worked together to increase their creative ability and to extend their interest in the field of art.

The decoration of the float for the Homecoming Queen, a tradition of L'Avant Garde, engaged the enthusiastic efforts of all the members. Likewise, a portrait booth, called the "Montmartre," provided the atmosphere of a French sidewalk art gallery at the Mardi Gras. In another club activity, the annual Christmas card sale, faculty, families and students bought 2,500 cards. The two cards were designed by Jim Gager, Marc West and Joan Barber, Gayna Uransky.

Field trips to the Lowe Art Gallery to see the exihibit "Renoir to Picasso 1914" and to the County Art Exhibit, sponsored by Richards Department Store, provided supplementary learning and social pleasure. Our member, Lynne Moody, received "Best of the Show" award at the County Exhibit.

Our proposed yearly project was a Library Art Alcove. This alcove will provide a pleasant atmosphere in which the students can read and study.

Girls' Sports Club

Girls' Sports Club has just concluded another active year under the leadership of Barbara Brown, Sue Hansen, Lyn Martin, and Helen Balstraz. The G.S.C.'s newest members are from Chattonettes; the other members come from intramural sports, cheerleading squads, majorettes, swimming team and the tennis team.

Our major undertaking this year was the support of a needy family at Christmas. Response to this cause was tremendous and we felt it was our best effort. Our annual camping trip to Camp Owassibaer rounded out the year.

The beauty of a sunset compares only to the splendor of the sunrise which follows it on the morrow. So the Palm Echo ends, providing the bridge to revisit Palmetto in the years to come.

The yearbook and I owe so much to so many people; to the considerate teachers whose classes we missed; to the art department for their ready response whatever the inconvenience; to a tolerant, willing staff and to Jim Gager and Ray Green for enriching our efforts by their special talents. Undoubtedly, Mr. McCauley heads this long list of Thank You's. We cannot measure our indebtedness to him by words or space, but only through our respect and unforgotten memory of him.

May the Palm Echo be to each of you what it was to us—a sense of pride and joy.
